

Sunday Assembly

The Sunday Assembly is a global, non-religious community that meets to hear great talks, sing songs and generally celebrate the wonder of life. It's for everyone who wants to ... Live Better ... Help Often ... Wonder More!

Sunday Assembly started in London in January 2013 and there are now over 70 Assemblies meeting regularly around the world from Africa to Australia and from the USA to Bournemouth! Sanderson Jones, stand-up comedian and co-founder of SA London has described it as "The best bits of church without the religion, and with awesome pop songs too!"

Join us each month to meet some fantastic people, find out what Sunday Assembly is all about, and if its for you ... join the gang!!

Some examples of recent topics:

- Being thankful
- Sunday Assembly goes wild!

Café Philo is a way of meeting interesting, inquiring people who enjoy talking about life's big issues and conundrums in a convivial atmosphere in the Poole, Bournemouth and Christchurch areas. We meet regularly in cafés, pubs and other suitable venues to discuss all manner of philosophical topics. Some are profound, others are decidedly not. Our discussions are non-party-political and free of religious or ideological dogma. We encourage a healthy mix of the serious and humorous, so you can be guaranteed a lively, stimulating evening.

We're not academics or experts - just ordinary people from a variety of backgrounds who share a common interest in exchanging ideas about things which matter in life and meeting like-minded people. If you're a heavy-duty philosopher you may find this group a bit lightweight. For anybody else, come along and get stuck into a decent conversation over a coffee or beer.

Some examples of recent topics:

- Why are we losing our religion?
- Is poverty a choice?
- Is cheating wrong?
- Who is responsible for refugees?
- What is humankind's greatest achievement?
- Can discrimination be good?
- Is there a formula for success?
