

Dorset Humanists is a humanist group. We've been meeting the needs of local non-religious people since 1996 – for friendship with like-minded people, for intellectual stimulation, and for a sense of belonging to a local and global community of humanists and freethinkers.

Dorset Humanists is an educational charity, a partner of Humanists UK, an associate member of Humanists International, and a group member of the National Secular Society.

We've been a positive presence in Bournemouth and beyond for over twenty years. Our events programme is varied and stimulating. I hope you will find topics and activities to interest you.

Everyone is welcome to attend our public events free of charge but we usually ask for a donation of around £3.00 to help cover our costs. If you support our aims (principally to represent and promote humanism understood as an ethical, non-religious worldview) we also invite you to support us with an annual and very affordable subscription, and also to join Humanists UK which is a separate but kindred organisation.

If you would like to be kept up to date with all of our news simply visit our website and subscribe to our monthly bulletin, or leave your contact details at the desk.

We look forward to seeing you.

David Warden
Chairman of Dorset Humanists
Humanist Adviser to Bournemouth University and Arts
University Bournemouth Faith & Refection Team
Editor of Humanistically Speaking magazine
Honorary Member of Humanists UK

Joining is easy and affordable!

Dorset Humanists is recognised as a charity by the Inland Revenue (EW10227) and funded entirely by voluntary donations. If you enjoy our events and share our aims and values, please join us for a very affordable £15 pa (students £5). Members get special discounts on selected events and more say in how we develop in the future. To join us, pick up a membership form at one of our meetings, phone 07910 886629, or see our website.

Free Entry

Unless otherwise stated, entry to all events in this programme is free to members and non-members alike, although we do appreciate an optional small donation of around £3.00 towards costs.

Rethinking the NHS: A Clinician's Roadmap to Efficiency
Barry Newman Saturday 13th January 2.00pm
Moordown

Drawing on his extensive experience, retired intensive care consultant Barry Newman will address the critical challenges facing the NHS, including long waiting lists and the financial strains from compensation claims. He proposes a radical shift in management, advocating a change in the way the NHS is strategically and operationally managed. This insightful talk will be of interest to everyone who wants to understand the NHS's current crisis and realistic proposals for reform.

Barry Newman is a member of Dorset Humanists Committee and he leads our School Visiting Programme.

Darwin Day Lunch
Catherine Nixey Saturday 10th February 1.15pm Moordown

After a delicious lunch provided by committee members, our distinguished guest speaker Catherine Nixey will talk about her latest book Heresy which chronicles how orthodox Christianity eventually triumphed over a multitude of competing messiahs in the early centuries.

Catherine Nixey studied Classics at Cambridge and now works as a journalist at the Economist. Her first book, The Darkening Age: The Christian Destruction of the Classical World, was published in 2017 and was an international bestseller. This is her second visit to Dorset Humanists.

Annual Members' Meeting
With complimentary buffet lunch Saturday 9th March 1.15pm Moordown

Another chance to grab a free lunch! This one is more informal and it precedes our annual meeting which is always a very lively affair. Our treasurer will give an account of our income and expenditure and our Chairman will give his report of the year. He will also announce Dorset Humanists' Humanist of the Year. It could be you! Members will elect the committee and Chair for the next year and discuss and vote on any proposals. Please submit any proposals you would like to be discussed no later than the end of January to chairman@dorsethumanists.co.uk. Nominations for the committee must also be received no later than the end of February.

Challenging Progressive Myths about Israel David Warden
 Wednesday 31st January 7.30pm Orchid Hotel

In this talk, David Warden will challenge some of the progressive myths about Israel, including the belief that Israel is a manifestation of "White European settler colonialism", that Israel is "Western compensation for the Holocaust", that "Palestinians had nothing to do with the Holocaust", and that "Israel is occupying Palestine". He will drawing extensively on the history of the region, especially the first Arab-Israeli War in 1947-1948. David is Chairman of Dorset Humanists and the Humanist Representative on the Bournemouth & Poole Holocaust Memorial Day Committee.

Simon Bowden and others Wednesday 28th February 7.30pm Orchid Hotel

Humanism is not aligned to a political party or ideology but humanists want to build a society in which everyone can flourish. Humanist values which "lean left" include equality and social justice, compassion and empathy, environmentalism, human rights, a fair voting system, global cooperation and peaceful conflict resolution. What policies and reforms would humanists coming from the left and centre left of the political spectrum like to see in party manifestos? Simon is a retired BBC journalist and he has a keen interest in politics. He is Secretary of Dorset Humanists.

Election 2024: Humanist Perspectives from the Right
David Warden and Aaron Darkwood Wednesday 27th March 7.30pm Orchid Hotel

Humanism is not aligned to a political party or ideology but humanists want to build a society in which everyone can flourish. Humanist values which "lean right" include economic dynamism, individual liberty and responsibility, community, national cohesion, rule of law, respect for tradition and customs, defence of Western culture and values, and control of borders. What policies and reforms would humanists coming from the right and centre right of the political spectrum like to see in party manifestos? David is a member of the Social Democratic Party (SDP) which is a hybrid of left and right approaches. Aaron has been a member of a variety of political parties.

WALKS
Full details on Meetup.com

7 miles Sunday 21st January – Poole Harbour
 Commencing at Shell Bay (the southern landing point of the Sandbanks Ferry) we will have a gentle walk of about 7 miles to explore the forest and the seashore on the south side of Poole Harbour.

Please join Dorset Humanists on Meetup for full details and to be notified of any changes owing to bad weather.

SOCIALS
Details on Meetup.com

Our pub social is on the first Thursday of the month at Moon in the Square. Hosted by Dean Robertson or Lyn Glass. We usually find a table on the ground floor on the right-hand side as you enter. No set agenda. Just turn up and chat! Food is available and drinks are reasonably priced. From 7.30pm until whenever you like.

Plus occasional barbecues or garden parties in the summer – why not host one?

Learning about Humanism
 Course

Have you visited our humanist library lately? We have an extensive collection of books on humanism, atheism, secularism, science and much more in our superb lending library which is available at Moordown Community Centre every second Saturday of the month. Turn up before the main event starts (see details on this page) and have a browse, or during the break at 3.30pm. Don't forget to return books in a timely manner.

Details correct at the time of printing. Please check the latest bulletin and especially Meetup.com for any changes to this programme.
